

Judith A Miller, 74, of rural Stanley, died at Froedert Hospital in Milwaukee. She was born Judith Ann Bandor to the late Bruno and Josephine (Palmer) Bandor. Judy graduated from Stanley-Boyd High School in 1969. She went on to acquire her Bachelor's degree in Music Education from U-W Parkside.

Judy worked in Education for a time and at an insurance agency. She met Paul David Miller and married. The couple then started their own business; catering to companies for setting up meetings/conventions.

She loved performing in choirs, and community groups. She also enjoyed flowers, nature and in retirement living on the family land.

She is survived by her husband, Paul David Miller, her brother, Dennis Bandor of Stanley, and her sisters in law, Kathy, Lexi and Ann.

Cremation services has been accorded and inurnment in the Huron Presbyterian Cemetery will take place in the future. Plombon Funeral Services assisted the family with arrangements.